

How To Fix Outlook Not Responding Error

---

Outlook Not Responding: Microsoft Outlook is not responding due to stuck at processing (or) stopped working (or) freezes (or) hangs. If an Outlook not responding the screen says that then it can close for to fix the safe Mode on Outlook. After that, it can open normally to fix the problem.

The outlook is a personal information manager from Microsoft. It is developed by Microsoft Corporation. The outlook is one of the Microsoft office suites. Microsoft outlook has replaced With previous Microsoft scheduling and programs. Versions of Microsoft Outlook include that Outlook for phones and tablets, Windows, Mac, office, MS-DOS like that.

Symptoms of Outlook Not Responding:

When you open the file or send an email message in Microsoft Outlook, then outlook freezes or you got an error message

“Outlook not responding”

Causes of Outlook Not Responding:

- You have not installed the latest updates
- The outlook is used by another process
- previously installed add-ins with interfering with outlook
- Your AppData folder is redirected to another network location
- Mailboxes are too large.
- you have to repair your office programs.
- outlook data files become corrupted and damaged.
- your user profile has become corrupted

<https://livesupportonlinechat.com/en-us/microsoft-outlook-not-responding/>